

Dr. Steve Zinkgraf

SBTI announces a NEW Master Black Belt elective: "Advanced Shakespeare, Communications and Leadership"

Instructors:

- Dr. Steve Zinkgraf – CEO, SBTI
- Guy Roberts – Artistic Director, Prague Shakespeare Festival
- Sarah Johnson – Professional Actress and Teacher
- Andrea Osborn – Professional Actress and Teacher
- Dick Scott – Executive Director, SBTI Master Black Belt Program

MBBs learning to step outside the box.

The Key Topics That Will Be Covered:

- The Evolution of Shakespeare's Greatest and Most Dynamic Leader – Henry V
- The Actor and Performers Connection Between Voice, Body, Spirit and Leadership
- Communicating as a Leader During Times of Crises and Conflict
- Formal Presentations
- Persuading Hostile Audiences
- Speaking and Listening to Adversaries and Trusted Allies
- Engaging Your Audience and Holding Its Attention
- Inspiring Your Troops Against Overwhelming Odds
- Understanding the Characteristics and Development of Great Teams

The art of making a great entrance.

Special Tools:

Actors Voice and Body Work, Stage Combat Techniques, Shakespeare's Text and Rhetoric Techniques, Speaking with Passion (Monologues and Actual Presentations), Effectively Delivering Shakespearian Insults, Shakespeare Ensemble

You Will:

- Understand selected principles of leadership during times of crises and conflict through Shakespeare's model of Henry V
- Realize your strengths and weaknesses as a communicating leader using Shakespeare's model of Henry V
- Discover and strengthen your own unique voice as a leader
- Articulate your passions and concerns in clear and direct language
- Inspire others effectively and engagingly in your own, unique voice

Inspiring a hostile audience.

For more information on this exciting elective and for availability and dates, please contact Bob Croniser at bcroniser@sbtimail.com or 888.752.7070.